

Sam McNally – French Horn, Guest Faculty Dept. of Postsecondary Studies 2022-2023

Grateful for the opportunity to return to Victoria, Sam McNally is passionate about making and teaching music. He has a Bachelor's of Music with distinction from the University of Victoria and a Master's of Music from the Guildhall School of Music and Drama in London, UK.

Sam began his studies in Calgary with Laurie Matiation at the Mount Royal Conservatory and continued with Kurt Kellan the University of Victoria. In London, Sam studied with David Pyatt, Alec Frank-Gemmill, Sue Dent, and Nico Fleury.

Recently appointed 3rd horn of the Victoria Symphony, Sam is also currently the principal horn of both the Kamloops and Okanagan Symphonies. Since 2019, Sam has been teaching at the Penticton Academy of Music and as of September 2022 Sam will be joining the faculty of the University of Victoria School of Music.

The Victoria Conservatory of Music's Department of Postsecondary Studies is very pleased to have Sam on Guest Faculty for the 2022-2023 Academic year!
