Our Mission

We inspire, nurture, and enrich our community through excellence in music education, performance, and wellness.

The Goolden Legacy

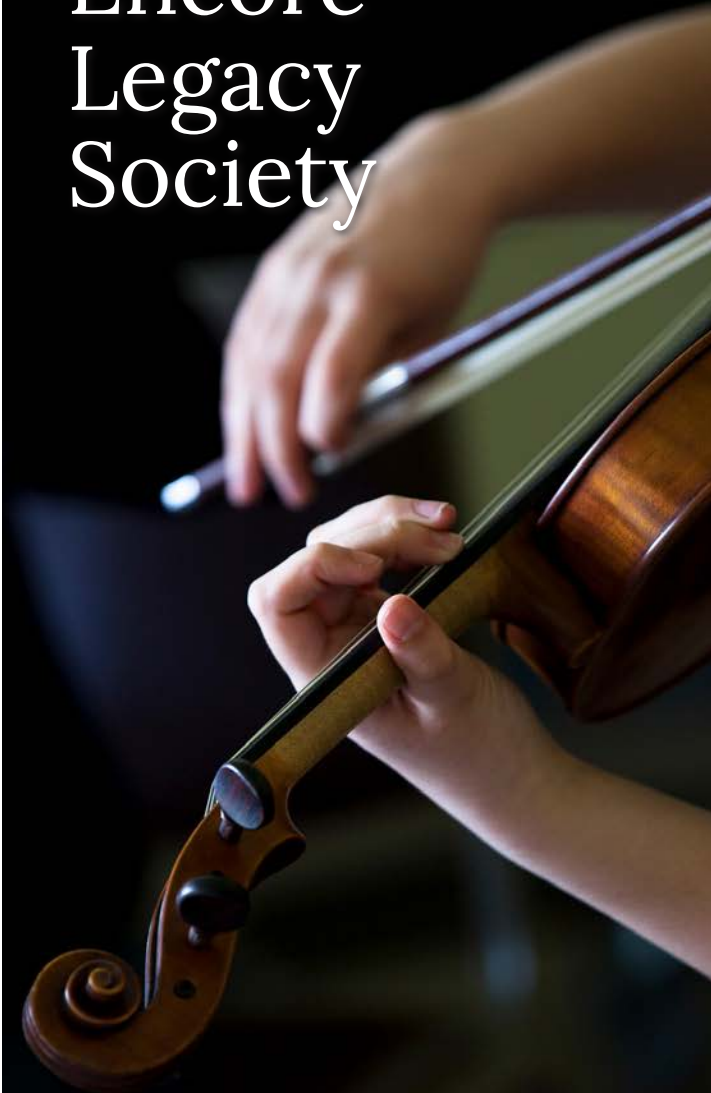

The Victoria Conservatory of Music owes its existence to an individual who demonstrated the foresight and commitment to music in our community, our founder - Mrs. Alix Goolden. Her gift to the Conservatory was a living legacy used for establishing a concert hall which is now one of the finest in the region. On September 25, 1998, the Alix Goolden Performance Hall was dedicated in her honour.

Mrs. Goolden was an inspiration to many including her family who continue to support her vision and provide for the future of the Conservatory.
